Memorial Service for Edwin H. Gleason. Wednesday afternoon, May 13th, after Judge Spear had assigned the trial cases in the Supreme Court in session at Rumford Falls, Ralph T. Parker, chairman of the committee having in charge the memorial services in honor of Edwin H. Gleason, late member of the Oxford County bar, addressed the court concerning the action of the committee.

He then spoke of the character of the deceased brother in his relation to principle; emphasizing him in a manner fitting his exalted character, which the speaker said had been tempered in the school of hard experience; tried and never found wanting in his private or public life.

Mr. Parker then, in behalf of the committee, read resolutions of respect and asked that they be made a part of the court record and that a copy be sent to the family of the deceased brother.

A. J. Stearns addressed the court and explained that Fred R. Dyer of the committee, and a former associate of Mr. Gleason in the legislature, had prepared a memorial tribute for the occasion but had been suddenly called away and had requested the speaker to read the paper.

Mr. Dyer spoke of the legislative career of the deceased brother and called attention to the conscientious, hard and effective work he did for the legislature. His tribute to him as a scholar and an incorruptible legislator was of the highest order, and left no doubt that Mr. Gleason had passed the ordeal of temptation while a member of the House and without wavering came out unpolluted. His hard and faithful work in the legislature was the primary cause of his illness and final death, said Mr. Dyer.

Judge A. E. Stearns then spoke of Mr. Gleason in his business career and gave some reminiscences of his boyhood days, the incidents of which foreshadowed his character as a man.

His estimate of Mr. Gleason's character was based upon intimate knowledge of him as a student and later as a partner in the law business. Judge Stearns then paid a fitting tribute to the moral character of his former business associate and when he referred to the untimely close of what promised to be a brilliant career the speaker was nearly overcome with emotion and it was with difficulty that he was able to control his voice sufficiently to finish his eloquent testimonial.

Judge Spear then asked if there were any attorneys present who wished to speak.

Hon. John P. Swaney made a few appropriate and appreciative remarks and then Judge Spear closed the services by adding a few well timed remarks and ordering the resolutions to be made a part of the court record, and a copy transmitted to the family of the late brother.

Thursday morning the case of H. W. Ranlett vs. C. G. Price et al. was tried. In this case the defendant claimed that goods which were not weighed on scales that had been tested according to law. The Judge ruled in favor of plaintiff sustaining his action. The defendant entered exceptions and the case goes to the law court.

SAMANTHA ALLEN AT THE COURT OF FAME

At Bethel Tuesday and Wednesday Evenings.

Pleasing and Successful Affair—Many Local Hints.

Since the announcement that Samantha Allen at the Court of Fame was to be given in Bethel, under the auspices of Purity Chapter, O. E. S. on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week, all have been looking forward in anticipation of a rare treat, and those anticipations have been realized.

The hall was well filled Tuesday evening and all were especially pleased with the entertainment and are generous in their expression of appreciation of the commendable efforts of the various persons who participated.

The Goddess of Fame, who was to crown as Queen of Fame the most worthy claimant for that honor, received the historical characters, as shown in the appended cast of characters, each in appropriate costume and gave due consideration to the various claims which each made as to their just right to the honor to be bestowed.

As will be observed some of the world's most noted historical characters sought the honor, but it remained for Samantha Allen, because she had been a good wife to Josiah, who she allowed was no angel any more than are several Bethel men named, to furnish a liberal share of the amusing features in the setting forth of her claims.

Bridge, Topsy, and poor little Ike Partington also filed many a claim with their sparkling humor.

It must have been more difficult for the Goddess to make her selection than it sometimes is for our judges in prize speaking contests. It was nation coming with nation, queen with servant, artist with humorist, heroine with musician and poetry with dancing.

Queen Isabelle touched a responsive chord in claiming the honor for having given America to the world. No one else could show one great life to her credit but rather the spirit of her noble deeds demand the homage of the world.

Barbara Freckle caused the patriotic blood to boil in the veins of every American.

But it remained for Columbia, with her torch of liberty to give the light of humanity to the world and the world's great liberator to set free the Liberty and Education as the foundation of the Republics of the world, and to produce as her attendants, Porto Rico, Hawaii and Cuba.

With the Goddess the claims of Columbia overshadowed all the others and since the crown was not designed as an award for race or proud descent, to Columbia, that magic word which bids all warfare cease and stands for Equality, Humanity, Christianity and Peace, was bestowed the honor and she was bidden to let her grand banner ever wave over the land of the free and the home of the brave.

A Matter of Location.

RECEPTION GIVEN JUSTICE A. M. SPEAR

At Rumford Falls, May 13, in Opera House.

Supreme Court's Second Term The Occasion.

Rumford Falls has not yet gotten over rejoicing because of having been favored with a session of the Supreme Judicial Court once a year, and this term, as they did a year ago, a reception to the presiding justice was held.

A committee composed of the wives of the lawyers had the arrangements in charge, and those who attended the reception were satisfied that the committee left nothing undone to make the occasion one that would red-let credit upon Rumford.

The guests were first received in the parlors of the Elks' Club. At a quarter of nine the orchestra on the theatre stage above, began to play, and then the guests in couples filed up the stairway and into the hall, which was tastefully decorated.

As they passed along, Ralph T. Parker and Lucian W. Blanchard presented them to the Honorable Justice A. M. Spear, who with her husband shared the honor of the evening.

There were also in the receiving line, Hon. John P. Swaney and Mrs. Swaney, Hon. Walter Pettengill and wife, Col. and Mrs. Geo. D. Blais, Judge A. E. Stearns and wife, and Judge and Mrs. A. E. Stearns.

Each guest was presented a carnation as they passed along by Miss Hawley and Master Stearns.

After the formal reception was over the grand march was formed, led by Mr. and Mrs. Lucian W. Blanchard, followed by Ralph T. Parker and Mrs. Parker, and Judge Spear and Mrs. Parker.

The dance program was completed in nine numbers. The band directors were Lucian Blanchard, Alfred Sparks, James McMenamin, Ralph T. Parker, Matthew McCarthy, and Dana Threlkell.

The totality manner of Judge Spear and his handsome wife added much to giving the reception an air of dignity befitting the high character of the Supreme Court of Maine, and they will be pleasantly remembered by the people of Rumford, as well the Judge and his wife hold in grateful remembrance the respect shown them by the leading citizens of the place.

FIELD MEET.

Students of Gould's Academy at Riverside Park.

The students of Gould's Academy held a field meet at Riverside Park next Saturday afternoon, at 1:30 p. m. This is the first event of the kind that the students of the Academy have ever given, and it is hoped that a large attendance may be had.

Among the events are the 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, 440 yard dash, 1-2 mile run, 1 mile run, standing broad jump, running broad jump, running high jump, pole vault, throwing hammer, etc. etc. There is a large list of events which lack of space will not allow us to give, but many of the students will participate in the contests and the occasion will be of one of interest to the pleasure.

The admission will be 25 cents, and Riverside Park is big enough to hold as many thousands of people as may seek attendance, so let us all be there and lend our enthusiasm in behalf of the occasion.

MEMORIAL DAY

Soldiers' Monument to be Dedicated at Bethel.

Grand Procession—Rumford Falls Band in Attendance.

Memorial Day is close at hand and we wish again to remind all of our readers in Bethel, and adjacent towns of the exercises which are to take place in Bethel on that date.

As stated last week, the Soldiers' Monument recently erected in Bethel will be dedicated on the afternoon of Memorial Day, and it is proposed to make the occasion the one patriotic occasion in Bethel which will be likely to be had during the life of the few remaining members of the Grand Army.

This fact alone ought to be sufficient to quicken the heart of every patriotic heart in this vicinity, and we hereby appeal to each and every one, who have a love for the old flag and who appreciate the fact that the soldier boys who went out from Bethel to offer their services and their blood to preserve their country and sustain the principles of liberty and common manhood, to join with us on Memorial Day in the exercises which will be held.

Memorial Sunday.

Union service will be held at the Congregational church at the regular hour. The Brown Post and the Woman's Relief Corps are requested to meet at their homes at 10 o'clock, from which they will march to the church. The Sons of Veterans are urged to participate in the exercises and it is hoped that there will be a good attendance on the part of the citizens and school children upon the exercises.

The Memorial sermon will be delivered by Rev. Wm. C. Curtis, pastor of the Congregational church.

Memorial Day.

There will be an exciting day of interest in Bethel during Memorial Day, not only to keep every one at home but to bring in the people from adjacent towns.

The Rumford Falls Band of twenty-five pieces has been engaged for the entire day. A concert will be given in the forenoon and at 3 o'clock the grand procession will be formed on Church street near Old's Academy.

The procession will be made up of the Grand Army, Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans, the school children, citizens, members of the various Fire Companies of Bethel and it is hoped that the Odd Fellows and Masons may also join.

In this connection, we earnestly urge all citizens to be in attendance, and also the Sons of Veterans and citizens, in fact any and all who feel to lend their presence and influence for the cause of patriotism. As suggested, this will doubtless be the last time during the life of the Grand Army that there will be a general invitation to the people of Bethel and vicinity to unite in one grand procession in commemoration of the services which they offered to their country in the time of need.

The exercises will march up Church street to Main, around the Commons and down Main to the monument where most dedicatory exercises will be held.

After the exercises will be in the evening services will be held in O'Brien Hall. The band will be in attendance, and the school children and the Bethel Church will furnish appropriate music, several officers will make short addresses and the soldiers will hold a general camp fire, at which time all will relate interesting incidents concerning their army life. These exercises will be a landmark in the history of the town and will prove of interest to one and all. Let the patriotic spirit within each and every one of us bring us into participation in these exercises and may the day be one that will linger long in the memory of the boys and girls of Bethel, in whose hearts we hope to inspire by these exercises a spirit of patriotism which shall dominate their lives in years to come.

SAD DEATH AT NORWAY

The community was saddened by the news of the death of Annie Leah Moore, daughter of Samuel and Lillian Moore, which came peacefully May 13th. The fatal disease baffled the physician, and all treatment failed to stay the progress of the enemy.

Miss Moore was born in Grafton, Oct. 29, 1860, and moved to Oxford, Me., with her family a few years ago. In 1895 she came to Norway and had won hosts of friends since then. Being musically inclined and possessing a sweet voice, she was often called upon to assist in church and other public exercises. Vocal work was her delight and she labored hard to perfect herself in the profession under the care of Prof. Howard Stevens of Portland. In passing away so early in life, she leaves behind the sweet memory of a cheerful disposition, a pleasant word and a life made happy through association with the friends of nature.

The community deeply sympathizing with the family in their bereavement. The father and mother, the brothers, Collie Moore, of Hamilton, Oct. Frank, Fredrick, William and Harold of Norway, and the sisters, Mrs. Millie Fegheim, of Toronto, and Lena of Norway.

Arch Deacon Baymore of Auburn performed the last rites according to the Episcopal form, in Christ church, Saturday morning. The remains were carried to Oxford and tenderly placed in the family lot. The long list of beautiful flowers contributed testify to the deep sympathy expressed in the hour of sorrow.

FUNERAL OF DENNIS LA PLANTE.

At Rumford Falls, Saturday, occurred the funeral of Dennis LaPlante, whose sudden death was announced last week in the CITIZEN as having occurred at Livermore Falls. The body was taken to the Grand View Hotel, of which he was formerly proprietor, and from thence to the St. Jean Baptist church where the rites of the church were performed. The burial took place at the Catholic cemetery.

Mr. LaPlante was well known at Rumford Falls and quite popular. He is survived by a widow and three children.

THE DEATH OF HARRY SWEENEY.

The funeral of Harry Sweeney occurred at 1:30 p. m. Sunday from the St. Alban's church, Rumford Falls. Mr. Sweeney was a young married man, and an employee of the Oxford Paper Co.

He was taken ill of typhoid pneumonia about three weeks ago, and very sick until his death. His funeral was held during the illness, as he was too ill to be left alone at any time. He leaves a widow and two children, one a son and one a daughter.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT AT RUMFORD FALLS.

The case of W. McKay vs. W. N. McNeill. McNeill signed a paper promising to personally pay a bill of McKay's against the Mt. Olive Milling Co. McKay would bring suit. The court ordered a verdict for plaintiff for the amount claimed with interest from date of suit amounting to $750.

The case of H. W. Gorman vs. C. H. Nelson. Nelson got judgment. The court ordered that Nelson should have judgment of $10 without costs.

The case of Low vs. Ash was continued final.

Friday morning the case against Shawyer Lapham was continued, and the defendant called upon to produce his body or forfeit the bond.

The case against Andrew H. Jordan, in which the firm of C. H. Cummings & Sons of Norway appeared as plaintiff, occupied the time of the court nearly all day Friday.

The action was to recover from Jordan the sum of $1000 that the plaintiff alleged Jordan had fraudulently taken from them in acting as agent in a timber land deal.

Jordan, who lives in Bridgton, and is an insurance agent, and promoter of timber, as a side issue, represented to the Cummings Brothers, in the latter part of the year 1906, that a certain timber tract in New Gloucester, belonging to a Mr. Nelson, could be bought for $11,000.

After several talks about the matter, the two agreed to buy. They first asked of the owner the lowest to be had. They alleged that Jordan said there that it was, and warned them to keep away from Nelson, as they might upset the trade.

They then agreed to buy the tract. They finally paid the money and got the deed.

It proved later that Jordan only paid Nelson $11,000 for the lot, and the plaintiff's claim was, that the $1000 Jordan conspired to take from them.

The defendant did not deny any of the statements, and that he did pay it to a certain Mr. Ross of Maine, who he claimed was entitled to the sum by agreement between them, for arranging the deal with the plaintiff.

Mr. Ross appeared and testified that he delivered the $1000 as defendant agreed.

Shawyer and Ross appeared for the plaintiff, and Paul for the defendant. Verdict for the plaintiff, $1000.

Saturday forenoon the case of John Ferguson vs. John Ferguson Jr. in a suit for divorce occupied the attention of the court.

Mrs. Ferguson, a well appearing and very intelligent woman, claimed continued habit of intemperance on the part of her husband. Numerous instances were cited when he was drunk, and when he was in his language. No claim was set up that he used any force or violence upon her.

Mrs. Ferguson was corroborated by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Taylor, of Norway. Also by Mr. Charles H. Sawyer of Maine. Mrs. Ferguson left her husband last October.

The defense was a general denial of the allegations relating to continued habit of intemperance, and an effort to establish another man to the cause of the divorce. Many men who had been intimate with Mr. Ferguson testified that they had never seen him on such under the influence of liquor that he did not know what he was doing. The effort to establish another man to the cause was a failure. The evidence that the defense offered, amounted to the fact that the plaintiff was sane.

Judge Ross, after careful consideration, held that he considered that the plaintiff had proved her case and was entitled to a divorce. He said that a man should abuse a woman more by physical violence, sometimes.

He said that he should have the most of the father's right to see the girl and her mother and give her the mother's custody. He is to be regulated by the mother and father. The only restriction imposed was that the father should not go near the boy when he had been drinking. The matter of custody was left under advisement. The parties were ordered to pay $100 costs to the plaintiff. Verdict for the plaintiff.

The case of W. McKay vs. W. N. McNeill was continued. The court ordered that Nelson should have judgment of $10 without costs.

The case of H. W. Gorman vs. C. H. Nelson was continued. The court ordered that Nelson should have judgment of $10 without costs.

BASE BALL.

Two Snappy Games at Riverside Park, Bethel.

On Wednesday, May 13th, the Gould's Academy base ball nine lined up against the Town Team at Riverside Park and the result was one of the best games that has been seen in Bethel for a long time.

One notable feature in connection with this game was that during the first inning, in which the Town team was in the field, but three balls were pitched by Carter, each man being put out on an infielder. Not a run was made until the fifth inning when each team got one score after which the game remained one and one until the fifth when the Town team got the second score and won the game.

THE CITIZEN:
To the news items last week concerning the appointment of a Building Inspector for the town there was no mention of the fact that the selectmen first appointed A. E. Small (see item) was generally expected they would, who would not accept the place. The appointment of Mr. Howard is very satisfactory to the people and he is expected to do his duty according to the law, and will do it. The public attention is called to this omission merely to get the fact before the people that the selectmen did not ignore the public expression of sentiment as might be inferred from the plain statement of fact as it appeared.

MAINE, May 19th, 1908.
New Use for Talc Oil Cloth.
A woman who is always discovering things about the house that nobody else ever thought of says that the oilcloth used for kitchen tables makes an excellent floor covering if used over felt padding.

It has the merit, moreover, of coming in daintier patterns than the ordinary oilcloth used for kitchens. It can be kept perfectly clean by scrubbing with soapy water made from a good white soap. Do not rub the oilcloth itself, but instead make a strong soda. The strong yellow soap used in most kitchens will soon wear off the luster of the oilcloth and make it dull and shabby looking. Wipe the floor perfectly dry with a clean soft cloth.

Turkish Delight.
Soak an ounce of gelatin for two hours in half a cupful of cold water. Dissolve two cupfuls of granulated sugar in half a cupful of cold water. As soon as it boils add the gelatin and cook steadily for 10 minutes. Flavor with the rind and juice of one orange and orange flower water of rose water. Turn into this wet with cold water and when set cut into squares. Roll in a mixture of powdered sugar and cinnamon's powder. A few chopped nuts taken from the fire.

New Idea in Napkin Rings.
An unobtrusive napkin ring is a pretty novelty. The design is worked in the solid with a stick on heavy brass; then the ring is carefully beveled along the sides, and this is embellished with small scallops, the beveling following the outside and being finished. One end is pointed and has a beveled loop at the straight end. The other end is straight and a small pearl button is sewed on about two inches from the end. The loop fastens over this, and the ring is complete.

Daily Varden Cake.
One cupful white sugar, one-half cupful butter beaten to a cream, whites of three eggs beaten to a foam, one-half cupful of sweet milk, two cupfuls of flour, one teaspoonful cream tartar, one-half teaspoonful soda, batter with lemon. Bake the cakes in three cups with 15 minutes of covered sugar put the frosting on the cake as soon as removed from oven.
